LULI Che Woo Prize –
Prize for World Civilization

"The rapid advancement in technology has significantly changed human life. While enjoying the fruits and convenience brought by scientific and technological progress, we must realize and adjust our social habits and moral values. We should pay attention to people's original social behaviors and moral values, and strive to achieve harmony and unity. As a result, we can contribute to the building of a peaceful and thriving society. I sincerely hope that this Prize will serve as a catalyst for the continued development of world civilization."

LUI Che Woo Prize –
Prize for World Civilization

LUI Che Woo

The most important achievement in technology is to make daily life simpler for everyone. While enjoying the facts and convenience brought by scientific and technological programs, we need to advocate and adopt relevant traditional and social culture, because the relationship between people, planets, social harmony and natural culture, and lifestyle between mankind is so as to contribute to the building of a peaceful and loving world.

I sincerely hope that this Prize will serve to catalyze the continued development of world civilization.
